

THE STORY OF THE WORLD, VOLUME FOUR COLORING PAGES

Based on The Story of the World, Volume Four: The Modern Age
by Susan Wise Bauer

Illustrations by Jeff West
Edited by Justin Moore

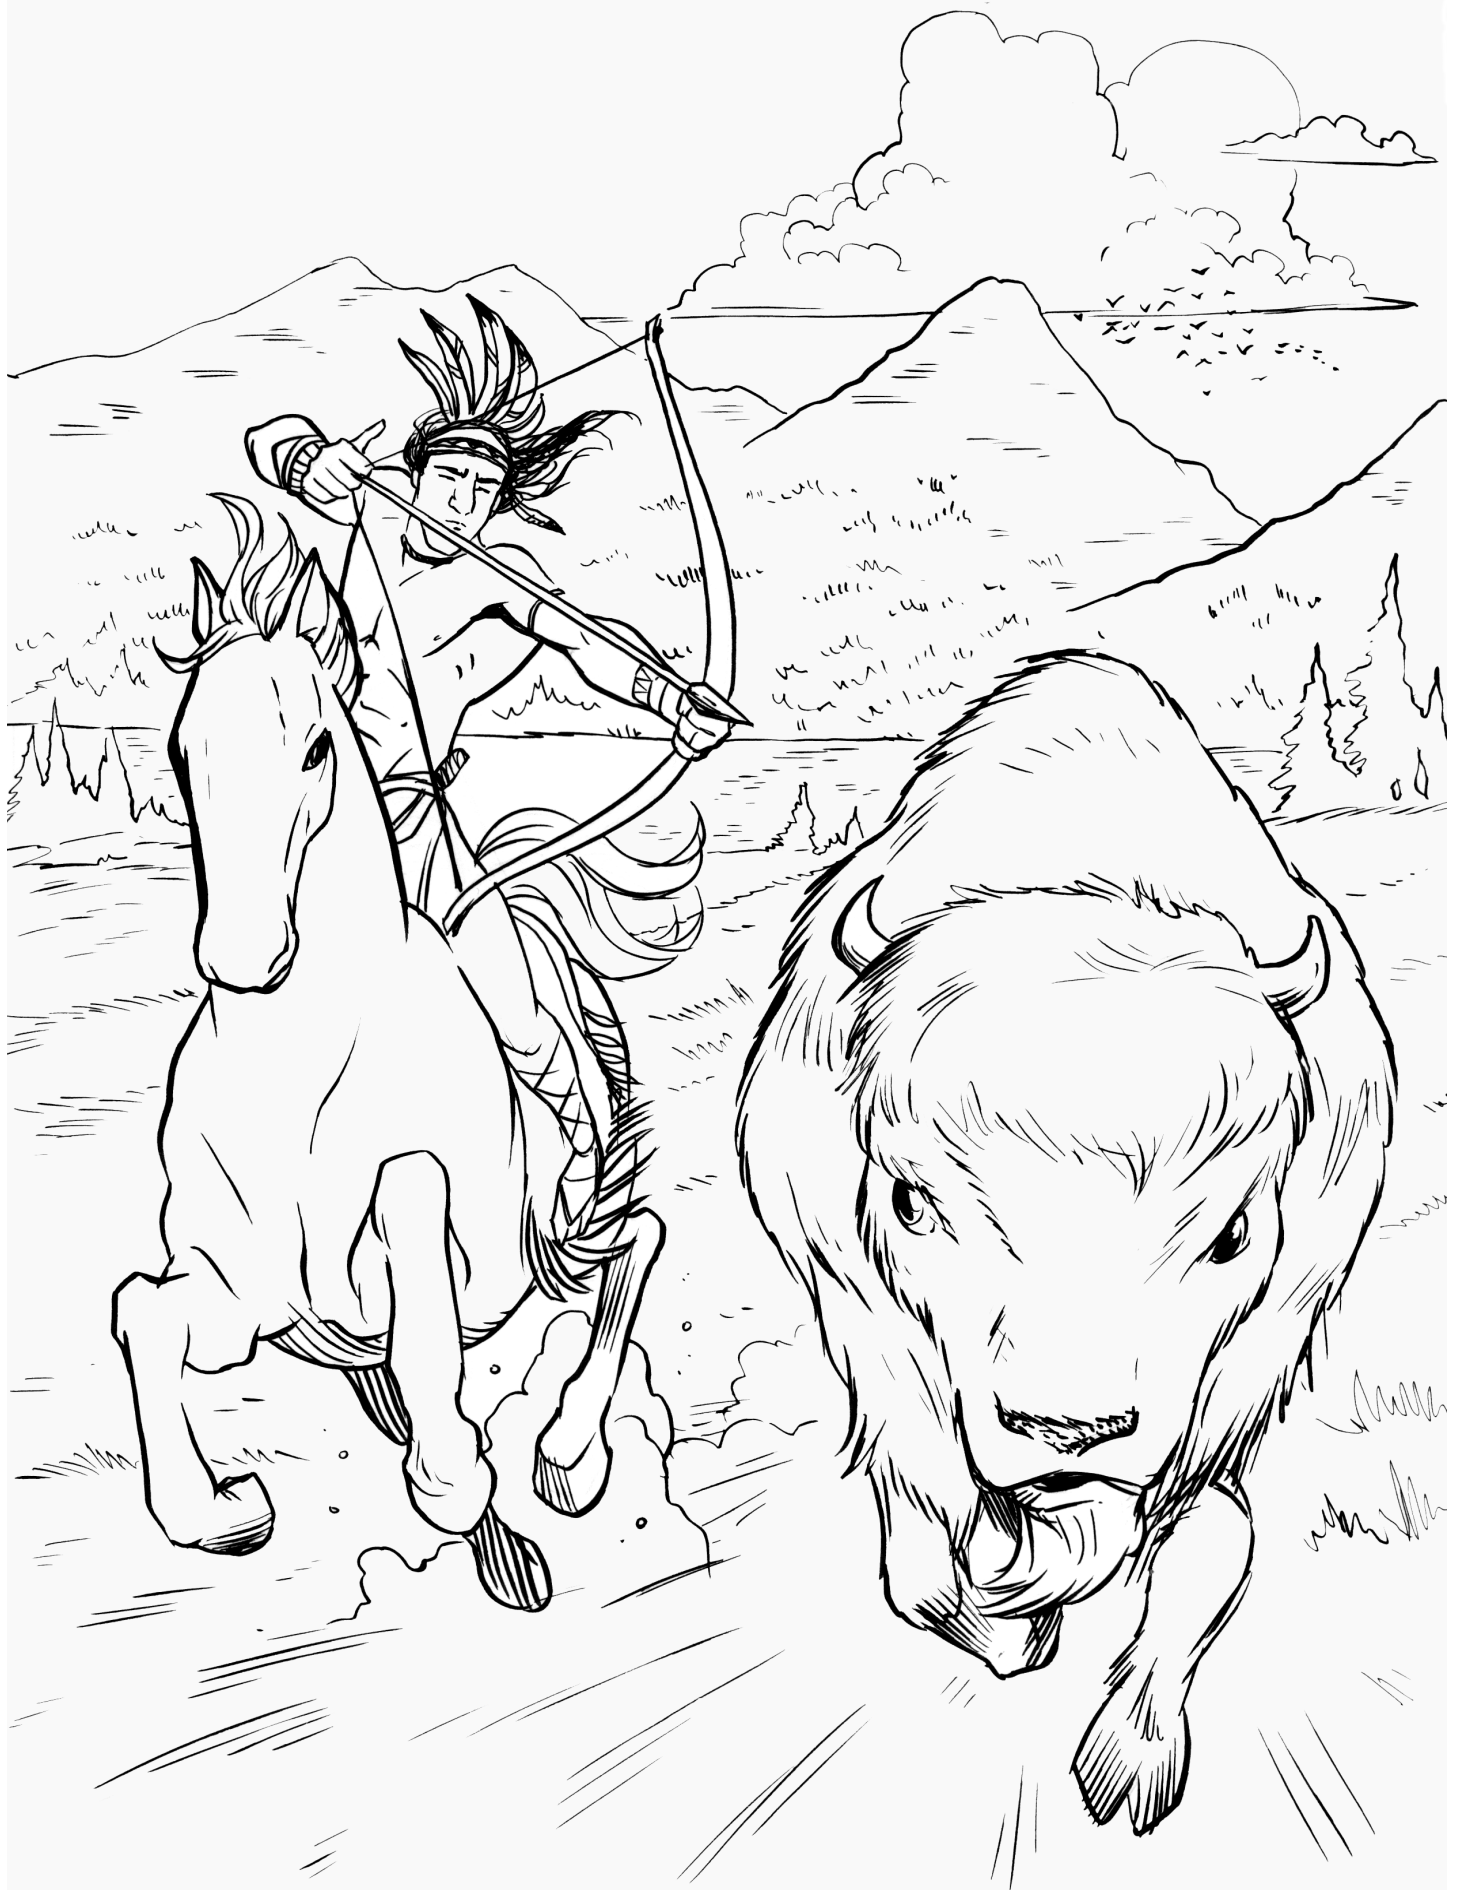

Peace Hill Press
Charles City, VA
www.peacehillpress.com

Chapter 1: Queen Victoria at the Great Exhibition Britain hosted the Great Exhibition in a giant building made of glass. Countries from around the world used the Exhibition to show off their amazing new inventions, such as steam trains.

Chapter 5: South Against North For four years, the northern and southern parts of the United States fought each other. The northern or “Union” soldiers wore blue, and the southern or “Confederate” soldiers wore gray.

Chapter 16: Chasing the Buffalo This Native American, from the Blackfoot tribe, is hunting buffalo to feed his tribe. The Native Americans didn't want white settlers to take away the land where they hunted buffalo.

Chapter 18: The Rich Ruler Mozaffar od-din Shah, the ruler of Persia, spent too much of his country's money on fancy parties, beautiful clothes, and expensive jewels.

Chapter 35: Space Dog This little Russian dog, “Laika,” was sent into space in a satellite called the Sputnik II, which the Soviet Union launched in 1957. She was the first living creature ever to go into outer space.